Note: There are options to adjust the output voltage, remote sense the voltage and control the Vipac Arrays. These functions were not used, they are a future option. All connections were made on the lugs.

Note: This converter was not equipped with the ability to current share.